Respondent, David L. Shook, submitted a loan officer license application (“Application”) to the Division of Financial Institutions (“Division”) on May 7, 2004. On October 4, 2004, the Division notified Respondent that it intended to deny his Application, due to his failure to disclose a previous conviction in response to a question regarding his prior criminal record. As a result, the Division found that: (1) Respondent violated R.C. 1322.07(A) by failing to disclose his conviction on his Application; (2) he violated R.C. 1322.07(B) by making a false statement of a material fact or by omitting a statement required on the licensing application; (3) he violated R.C. 1322.07(C), which prohibits an applicant from engaging in improper or dishonest conduct; and (4) his character and general fitness did not command the confidence of the public and warrant the belief that his business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of R.C. 1322.01 to 1322.12 – the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act.

Respondent requested an administrative hearing which was held on November 16, 2004. A Report and Recommendation (“Report”) was filed with the Division on December 9, 2004, recommending that the Division approve Respondent’s Application. No objections were filed.

In accordance with R.C. 119.09, the Division has considered the record, consisting of the Report and Recommendation, the transcript of testimony and exhibits, as well as all applicable laws. (The Hearing Examiner’s Report and Recommendation is attached). Following its review of the record, the Division hereby adopts the hearing officer's recommendation and APPROVES the loan officer license application of David L. Shook.

It is so ordered.

NOTICE OF APPELLATE RIGHTS
