WHEREAS, the Ohio Department of Commerce, by and through the Superintendent of the Division of Financial Institutions ("Division"), is charged with the responsibility of administering and enforcing the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act, as amended by Ohio Senate Bill 76 and codified in Ohio Revised Code ("R.C.") Chapter 1322, the Division finds that this order is necessary and appropriate, in the interest of the public, and is consistent with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act; and

WHEREAS, on February 27, 2004, Eric F. Keita ("Respondent") applied to the Division for a loan officer license pursuant to R.C. Chapter 1322; and

WHEREAS, on July 13, 2004, the Division issued Respondent a Notice that informed him that the Division had conducted an investigation of Respondent and, as a result thereof, alleged that:

1. Respondent's actions show that his character and general fitness do not command the confidence of the public to warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act as required by R.C. 1322.041(A)(5).
2. Respondent violated R.C. §1322.051, which prohibits a loan officer applicant from acting as a loan officer when the license has been cancelled by operation of law, which is ninety days after the original issuance of the loan officer license if the licensee has not successfully completed an examination approved by the superintendent.
3. Respondent violated R.C. §1322.07(C), which prohibits a loan officer applicant from engaging "in conduct that constitutes improper, fraudulent, or dishonest dealings."

WHEREAS, the Notice informed Respondent of the Division's intent to deny his loan officer license application and of the opportunity for a hearing regarding the denial if requested within thirty days from the mailing of the Notice. The Notice further cautioned Respondent that "[i]f the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions d[id] not receive a written request for a hearing in its offices within thirty (30) days of the time of the mailing of th[e] Notice, the Superintendent w[ould] issue an order denying Respondent a loan officer license[:]"

WHEREAS, the Notice was mailed to Respondent, via certified mail, and service was perfected;

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to request a hearing by the statutory deadline and thereby failed to defend against the Divisions' allegations;

WHEREAS, the Division finds that the allegations contained in the Notice are true and that Respondent's loan officer license application should be denied;

The February 27, 2004 loan officer license application of Respondent, Eric F. Keita, is hereby denied.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

Respondent is hereby notified that this order may be appealed, pursuant to R.C. 119.12, by filing a notice of appeal with the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions, setting forth the order appealed from and the grounds for the appeal. A copy of such notice of appeal must also be filed with the court of common pleas of the county in which the place of business of the Respondent is located, or the county in which the Respondent is a resident. A notice of appeal must be filed within fifteen (15) days after the date of mailing of this order.
