WHEREAS, the Ohio Department of Commerce, by and through the Superintendent of the Division of Financial Institutions ("Division"), and charged with the responsibility of administering and enforcing the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act, as codified in Ohio Revised Code ("R.C.") Chapter 1322, the Division finds that this Order is necessary and appropriate, in the interest of the public, and is consistent with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act; and

WHEREAS, the Division issued JOSEPH P. YOUNG ("Respondent") a loan officer license on January 30, 2004 and then again on June 2, 2004;

WHEREAS, on both occasions, Respondent's loan officer license was terminated because he failed to pass the exam within in ninety days; on November 9, 2005, Respondent reapplied for a loan officer license and said application remains pending; and

WHEREAS, on January 5, 2007, the Division issued Respondent a Notice that informed him that the Division had conducted an investigation of Respondent and, as a result thereof, alleged that:

1. Respondent failed to comply with R.C. 1322.052 by not completing at least six hours of continuing education during the 2004 calendar year.

WHEREAS, the Notice informed Respondent of the Division's intent to deny Respondent's 2005 loan officer license application and of the opportunity for a hearing regarding the denial if requested within thirty days from the mailing of the Notice. The Notice further cautioned Respondent that "[i]f the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions d[id] not receive a written request for a hearing in its offices within thirty (30) days of the time of the mailing of th[e] Notice, the Superintendent w[ould] issue an order denying the application for a loan officer license[;]"

WHEREAS, service of the Notice on Respondent was perfected through publication in The Morning Journal, for three consecutive weeks;

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to request a hearing by the statutory deadline and thereby failed to defend against the Division's allegations;

WHEREAS, the Division finds that the allegations contained in the Notice are true and that Respondent's loan officer license application should be denied;

Respondent, Joseph P. Young's loan officer license application is hereby DENIED.
