Chapter 1322, the Division finds that this order is necessary and appropriate, in the interest of the public, and is consistent with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act; and

WHEREAS, Charles E. Corrigan ("Respondent") applied to the Division for a loan officer license pursuant to R.C. Chapter 1322; and

WHEREAS, on October 2, 2002, the Division issued Respondent a Notice which informed him that the Division had conducted an investigation of Respondent and, as a result thereof, alleged that:

2. Respondent's character and general fitness do not command the confidence of the public and warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act; and that
3. The public would be best served and that the purpose of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act would be realized if Respondent was denied a license to act as a residential mortgage loan officer in the state of Ohio.

WHEREAS, the Notice informed Respondent of the opportunity for a hearing regarding the denial if requested by Respondent within thirty days from the mailing of the Notice and even informed Respondent that "[i]f the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions d[id] not receive a written request for a hearing in its offices within thirty (30) days of the time of the mailing of th[e] Notice, the Superintendent w[ould] issue an order denying Respondent a loan officer license.";

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to request a hearing and thereby failed to defend against the Division's allegations;

WHEREAS, the Division finds that the allegations contained in the Notice are true and that Respondent should be denied a license to act as a loan officer;

Respondent, Charles E. Corrigan, is hereby denied a loan officer license.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
