Beachwood, OH 44122)	&
)	Notice of Appellate Rights

WHEREAS, the Ohio Department of Commerce, by and through the Superintendent of the Division of Financial Institutions ("Division") and charged with the responsibility of administering and enforcing the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act, as codified in Ohio Revised Code ("R.C.") Chapter 1322, the Division finds that this Order is necessary and appropriate, in the interest of the public, and is consistent with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act; and

WHEREAS, TRITON FINANCIAL GROUP, LLC ("Respondent") is a limited liability company that held a certificate of registration to engage in business as a mortgage broker pursuant to R.C. Chapter 1322; and

WHEREAS, on February 2, 2009, the Division issued Respondent a Notice which informed it that the Division had conducted an investigation of Respondent and, as a result thereof, alleged that:

- A. The Division is authorized by R.C. 1322.10(A)(1)(a) to revoke a mortgage broker certificate of registration if the Division finds that the applicant has violated "or failed to comply with any provisions of sections 1322.01 to 1322.12 of the Revised Code or the rules adopted under those sections or any other law applicable to the business conducted under a certificate of registration[.]"
- B. R.C. 1322.01(E) defines "loan officer" as "an employee who originates mortgage loans in consideration of direct or indirect gain, profit, fees, or charges". R.C. 1322.01(C) defines "employee" as "an individual for whom a mortgage broker, in addition to providing a wage or salary, pays social security and unemployment taxes, provides workers' compensation coverage, and withholds local, state, and federal income taxes."
- C. Pursuant to R.C. 1322.06(A), the Division conducted an examination of Respondent on February 21-22, 2008. During the course of this examination, the Division examiner found that Respondent treated its licensed loan officers, Andrew Morean, Kevin Gainer, Dionne Moss, and Tenia Wilson as subcontractors and reported a portion of their income on 1099 forms rather than on W-2s.
- D. By reporting some of Andrew Morean, Kevin Gainer, Dionne Moss, and Tenia Wilson's income on 1099s and not on W-2s, Respondent engaged in conduct that constitutes improper, fraudulent, or dishonest dealings in violation of R.C. 1322.07(C).
- E. R.C. 1322.072 prohibits persons from knowingly circumventing, interfering with, obstructing, or failing to cooperate, including making a false or misleading statement, failing to produce records, or intimidating or suborning any witness in connection with any examination or investigation conducted by the superintendent of financial institutions under sections 1322.01 to 1322.12 of the Revised Code.

- F. Following the Division's February 2008 Examination, on May 14, 2008, Richard Keck, Chief Examiner for Consumer Finance wrote Kevin Gainer of Triton Financial Group a letter addressing the issues raised in the February compliance examination. At this time, Kevin Gainer was the individual designated as Triton Financial Group, LLC's Operations Manager. (He became Triton Financial Group, LLC's approved Operations Manager in July 2008). The letter was sent by US regular mail and requested a response within thirty days. The Division did not receive a letter from Triton Financial Group, LLC in response to the Division's May 14, 2008 letter addressing the issues found in the Division's examination.
- G. Subsequently, on August 20, 2008, Richard Keck, Chief Examiner for Consumer Finance, wrote another letter to Kevin Gainer of Triton Financial Group, LLC, again requesting Triton Financial Group, LLC address the issues raised in the Division's examination and respond to the Division's letter on or before September 3, 2008. This letter was sent by Certified Mail to Kevin Gainer, the Operations Manager of Triton Financial Group, LLC at Respondent's business address and received on August 22, 2008. The Division received no response to its August 20, 2008 letter from any representative of Triton Financial Group, LLC.
- H. By failing to respond to the Division's May 14, 2008 and August 20, 2008 letters that addressed the compliance issues found during the February 2008 examination, Respondent violated R.C. 1322.072.

At settlement, the monthly payment for the combined first and second mortgages was $7,082.97. The difference between the proposed monthly mortgage payment and the monthly mortgage payment at settlement was more than five percent.
- K. R.C. 1322.064(A)(2) states: [n]o registrant or licensee shall fail to...[t]imely inform the buyer if any fees payable by the buyer to the registrant or lender increase by more than ten percent or one hundred dollars, whichever is greater.
