WHEREAS, the Ohio Department of Commerce, by and through the Superintendent of the Division of Financial Institutions ("Division"), is charged with the responsibility of administering and enforcing the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act, as amended by Ohio Senate Bill 76 and codified in Ohio Revised Code ("R.C.") Chapter 1322, the Division finds that this order is necessary and appropriate, in the interest of the public, and is consistent with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act; and

WHEREAS, on September 30, 2005, TRINA M. DOWNS ("Respondent") applied to the Division for a loan officer license pursuant to R.C. Chapter 1322; and

WHEREAS, on November 21, 2005, the Division issued Respondent a Notice which informed her that the Division had conducted an investigation of Respondent and, as a result thereof, alleged that:

1. In or around 2002, in the Municipal Court of Perrysburg, Ohio, Respondent was convicted of PASSING BAD CHECKS, a misdemeanor of the first degree.
2. In or around 2004, in the Municipal Court of Oregon, Lucas County, Ohio, Respondent was convicted of PETTY THEFT, a misdemeanor of the first degree.
3. In or around April 2005, the Division determined that Respondent had violated R.C. §§ 1322.07(A), (B) and (C).
4. In or around April 2005, the Division determined that Respondent's character and general fitness do not command the confidence of the public and warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act. See R.C. 1322.041(A)(5).
5. Respondent had not proven that she is honest, truthful, and of good reputation, and that there is no basis in fact for believing that she would not commit another criminal offense involving passing bad checks, theft or any criminal offense involving money or securities; and
6. Because of her criminal conviction(s), and because she violated R.C. §§ 1322.07(A), (B), and (C), her character and general fitness do not command the confidence of the public and warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act.

WHEREAS, the Notice informed Respondent of the Division's intent to deny her loan officer license application and of the opportunity for a hearing regarding the denial if requested within thirty days from the mailing of the Notice. The Notice further cautioned Respondent that "[i]f the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions d[id] not receive a written request for a hearing in its offices within thirty (30) days of the time of the mailing of th[e] Notice, the Superintendent w[ould] issue an order denying Respondent a loan officer license[;]”

WHEREAS, the Division obtained service on Respondent and Respondent failed to request a hearing by the statutory deadline and thereby failed to defend against the Division’s allegations;

WHEREAS, the Division finds that the allegations contained in the Notice are true and that Respondent should be denied a license to act as a loan officer;

The September 30, 2005 loan officer license application of Respondent, Trina M. Downs, is hereby denied.
