WHEREAS, Respondent’s loan officer license expired on April 30, 2007; on December 22, 2008 Respondent reapplied for a loan officer license and said application remains pending; and

WHEREAS, on March 16, 2009, the Division issued Respondent a Notice that informed her that the Division had conducted an investigation of Respondent and, as a result thereof, alleged that:

1. Respondent failed to comply with R.C. 1322.052 by not completing at least six hours of continuing education during the 2006 and 2007 calendar years.

WHEREAS, the Notice informed Respondent of the Division’s intent to deny Respondent’s loan officer license application and of the opportunity for a hearing regarding the denial if requested within thirty days from the mailing of the Notice. The Notice further cautioned Respondent that “[i]f the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions d[id] not receive a written request for a hearing in its offices within thirty (30) days of the time of the mailing of th[e] Notice, the Superintendent w[ould] issue an order denying the application for a loan officer license[;]”

WHEREAS, service of the Notice on Respondent was perfected;

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to request a hearing by the statutory deadline and thereby failed to defend against the Division's allegations;

WHEREAS, the Division finds that the allegations contained in the Notice are true and that Respondent's loan officer license application should be denied;

Respondent, Sheila L. Blanch's loan officer license application is hereby DENIED.

It is so ordered.
