Respondent, Jason Y. Krasnow ("Respondent"), submitted a loan officer license application ("Application") to the Division of Financial Institutions ("Division") on November 20, 2007. On August 26, 2008, the Division notified Respondent that it intended to deny the Application because: (1) in or around 2002, in the Superior Court of the State of Connecticut, Respondent was convicted of Sale of Hallucinogen/Narcotic; (2) Respondent has not proven by a preponderance of the evidence that Respondent is honest, truthful, and of good reputation, and that there is no basis in fact for believing that Respondent will not commit another criminal offense involving drug trafficking or any criminal offense involving money or securities (see R.C. sections 1322.031(A)(2) and 1322.041(A)(3)); and (3) Respondent's character and general fitness do not command the confidence of the public and warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act.

Respondent requested an administrative hearing, which was originally scheduled for December 12, 2008 but was continued twice upon Respondent's request and held on February 13, 2009. Respondent appeared without counsel. A Report and Recommendation ("Report") was filed with the Division on May 21, 2009, recommending that the Division deny Respondent's Application. No objections were filed.

In accordance with R.C. 119.09, the Division has considered the record, consisting of the Report, the transcript of testimony and exhibits, as well as all applicable laws. (A copy of the Report is attached hereto). Following its review of the record, the Division hereby adopts the hearing officer's recommendation. Therefore, the Division denies the loan officer license application of Jason Y. Krasnow.

It is so ordered.

NOTICE OF APPELLATE RIGHTS

Respondent is hereby notified that pursuant to R.C. 119.12, this Order may be appealed by filing a notice of appeal with the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions setting forth the Order appealed from and the grounds for the appeal. A copy of such notice of appeal must also be filed with the court of common pleas of the county in which the place of business of the Respondent is located, or the county in which the Respondent is a resident. A notice of appeal must be filed within fifteen (15) days after the date of mailing of this Order.

Signed and sealed this 10th day of July, 2009.
