Respondent, Katina R. Hall (“Respondent”), submitted a loan officer license application to the Division of Financial Institutions (“Division”) on September 14, 2004. On March 10, 2005, the Division notified Respondent that it intended to deny her loan officer license application (“Application”) because: (1) On or around 1992, in the Reynoldsburg Mayor’s Court, Franklin County, Ohio Respondent plead guilty to and was convicted of petty theft; (2) Respondent attested in a sworn statement that information Respondent provided on a license application was truthful, knowing that the information Respondent provided was false; (3) Respondent provided untruthful information to the State of Ohio, Department of Commerce, Division of Financial Institutions; (4) Respondent violated R.C. 1322.07(A), (B), and (C) by not disclosing her theft conviction on her loan officer license application; (5) Per R.C. sections 1322.031(A)(2) and 1322.041(A)(3), Respondent has not proven that she is honest, truthful, and of good reputation, and that there is no basis in fact for believing that she will not commit another criminal offense involving theft or any criminal offense involving money or securities; and (6) Because her character and general fitness do not command the confidence of the public and warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of R.C. sections 1322.01 to 1322.12 of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act.

Respondent requested an administrative hearing, which was held on April 28, 2005. A Report and Recommendation (“Report”) was filed with the Division on July 1, 2005, recommending that the Division deny Respondent's Application. No objections were filed.

In accordance with R.C. 119.09, the Division has considered the record, consisting of the Report and Recommendation, the transcript of testimony and exhibits, as well as all applicable laws. (The Hearing Examiner’s Report and Recommendation is attached). Following its review of the record, the Division hereby adopts the hearing officer's recommendation and denies the loan officer license application of Katina R. Hall.

It is so ordered.

NOTICE OF APPELLATE RIGHTS

Respondent is hereby notified that pursuant to R.C. 119.12, this Order may be appealed by filing a notice of appeal with the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions setting forth the Order appealed from and the grounds for the appeal. A copy of such notice of appeal must also be filed with the court of common pleas of the county in which the place of business of the Respondent is located, or the county in which the Respondent is a resident.
