Respondent, Antonio Akins ("Respondent"), submitted a loan officer license application ("Application") to the Division of Financial Institutions ("Division") on September 12, 2006. On October 26, 2006, the Division notified Respondent that it intended to deny his Application because: (1) In or around 1993, in the Hamilton County, Ohio, Court of Common Pleas, Respondent was convicted of aggravated drug trafficking; (2) per R.C. sections 1322.031(A)(2) and 1322.041(A)(3), Respondent has not proven that he is honest, truthful, and of good reputation, and that there is no basis in fact for believing that he will not commit another criminal offense involving drug trafficking or any criminal offense involving money or securities; and (3) because his character and general fitness do not command the confidence of the public and warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of R.C. sections 1322.01 to 1322.12 of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act.

Respondent requested an administrative hearing, which was held on December 14, 2006. A Report and Recommendation ("Report") was filed with the Division on January 4, 2007, recommending that the Division approve Respondent's Application. No objections were filed.

In accordance with R.C. 119.09, the Division has considered the record, consisting of the Report, the transcript of testimony and exhibits, as well as all applicable laws. (The Report is attached). Following its review of the record, the Division hereby adopts the hearing officer's recommendation and approves the Application of Antonio Akins.

It is so ordered.

NOTICE OF APPELLATE RIGHTS

Respondent is hereby notified that pursuant to R.C. 119.12, this Order may be appealed by filing a notice of appeal with the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions setting forth the Order appealed from and the grounds for the appeal. A copy of such notice of appeal must also be filed with the court of common pleas of the county in which the place of business of the Respondent is located, or the county in which the Respondent is a resident.
