WHEREAS, on February 8, 2005, the Division issued Respondent a Notice that informed him that the Division had conducted an investigation of Respondent and, as a result thereof, alleged that:

- I. Respondent's character and general fitness do not command the confidence of the public and warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly in compliance with the purposes of the Ohio Mortgage Broker Act, as required by R.C. 1322.041(A)(5).

WHEREAS, the Notice informed Respondent of the Division's intent to deny his loan officer license application and of the opportunity for a hearing regarding the denial if requested within thirty days from the mailing of the Notice. The Notice further cautioned Respondent that "[i]f the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions d[id] not receive a written request for a hearing in its offices within thirty (30) days of the time of the mailing of th[e] Notice, the Superintendent w[ould] issue an order denying Respondent a loan officer license[;]"

WHEREAS, the Notice was mailed to Respondent, via certified mail, on February 8, 2005, and service was perfected;

WHEREAS, The Division received a request for a hearing, but that request was not received by the statutory deadline and thereby Respondent failed to defend against the Division's allegations;

WHEREAS, the Division finds that the allegations contained in the Notice are true and that Respondent's loan officer license application should be denied;

The August 16, 2004 loan officer license application of Respondent, Christopher J. Mastrangelo, is hereby denied.
