WHEREAS, the Ohio Department of Commerce, by and through the Superintendent of the Division of Financial Institutions ("Division"), on July 16, 2010, issued James P. Kirven ("Respondent") a Notice of Intent to Refuse to Issue Loan Originator License for failure to fulfill the continuing education requirement mandated by R.C. 1322.052 for the 2007 and 2008 calendar years; and

WHEREAS, on or about September 16, 2010, following service of the Notice of Intent to Refuse to Issue Loan Originator License, Respondent tendered payment of a fine in the amount of one thousand ($1000.00) dollars and submitted proof of having completed twelve (12) hours of continuing education credits towards the 2007 and 2008 calendar years requirement;

WHEREAS, the Division finds that Respondent has satisfied the 2007 and 2008 continuing education deficiency cited in the July 16, 2010 Notice of Intent to Refuse to Issue Loan Originator License:

WHEREAS, the Division finds that the July 16, 2010 Notice of Intent to Refuse to Issue Loan Originator License is moot;

The Division hereby terminates the July 16, 2010 Notice of Intent to Refuse to Issue Loan Originator License.

It is so ordered.

NOTICE OF APPELLATE RIGHTS

Respondent is hereby notified that pursuant to R.C. 119.12, this Division Order may be appealed by filing a notice of appeal with the Division setting forth the order that Respondent is appealing from and stating that the Division's order is not supported by reliable, probative, and substantial evidence and is not in accordance with law. The notice of appeal may also include, but is not required to include, the specific grounds for the appeal. The notice of appeal must also be filed with the appropriate court of common pleas in accordance with R.C. 119.12. In filing the notice of appeal with the Division or court, the notice that is filed may be either the original notice or a copy of the original notice. The notice of appeal must be filed within fifteen (15) days after the date of mailing of this Division Order.

Signed and sealed this 4th day of October, 2010.
